TriZetto Provider Solutions™ Partners with Precyse for Physician Office ICD-10 Education
One of the leading revenue cycle management companies offers providers comprehensive ICD-10 training

Wayne, Pa., and Alpharetta, Ga., August 20, 2014—Precyse and HealthStream (NASDAQ: HSTM) are teaming with TriZetto Corporation’s Provider Solutions business unit to offer a unique and comprehensive ICD-10 education solution that is delivered exclusively through HealthStream’s workforce development platform. TriZetto’s more than 240,000 healthcare provider clients now have the opportunity to join the more than 1.6 million learners already using the Precyse solution for ICD-10 readiness. TriZetto Provider Solutions now provides clients with access to the following revolutionary benefits and features of the Precyse University Physician Office ICD-10 Education Solution:

- A single solution for all ICD-10 education needs within a practice or clinic;
- Diversified education providing each impacted population with the specific tools and training needed to be successful in ICD-10;
- A myriad of advanced courseware, applications and tools to make education more practical, accessible and relevant to physicians’ concerns, needs and time constraints; and
- Exclusive access to Precyse University’s expansive, one-of-a-kind ICD-10 education program.

“Even though ICD-10 implementation has been delayed, this transition remains one of the biggest business challenges for the healthcare industry. TriZetto is committed to supporting our clients through this critical change,” stated Lori Logan, senior vice president, TriZetto Provider Solutions. “Precyse University offers our clients industry leading education designed to meet the unique demands of their office and staff, whether they are a physician office or a hospital,” said Logan.

Precyse and HealthStream have partnered to offer a one-stop solution for all of the ICD-10 education needs for a broad range of healthcare organizations, including physician practices, clinics, and other ambulatory settings. With Precyse’s innovative ICD-10 education programs and HealthStream’s market leading platform for workforce development, healthcare providers have made the ICD-10 solution from Precyse and HealthStream the healthcare industry’s top choice.

“The Precyse University ICD-10 Physician Office Solution is built to fully prepare physicians and all members of their offices and/or clinics for the new world of ICD-10,” explains Thomas Ormondroyd, vice president and general manager of Precyse Learning Solutions. “Although ICD-10 seems daunting and burdensome, it actually offers tremendous opportunity to optimize reimbursement, minimize denials and appeals and improve clinical care through more valuable and detailed data. Our solution is designed to ease the change to ICD-10 and have physicians and their staffs ready for its arrival.”

Unlike its competitors, the Precyse University solution is fully built and tested with more than 200 courses, applications and tools specifically for physicians’ needs. In addition, most courses are mobile-ready for use on a computer, iPad® or mobile device to make education available anywhere and at any time. Innovative tools and resources such as video games, labs, simulators and animations are available as well.
