Precyse Thought Leadership on Display at HFMA ANI 2014

Performance Management Company also offers the only HFMA Peer Reviewed HIM Technology and Services Suite

Wayne, Pa., and Alpharetta, Ga., June 23, 2014 — Precyse, a leader in health information management (HIM) technology and services, is driving health information performance at the Healthcare Financial Management Association's Annual National Institute (HFMA ANI), June 22-26 at the Sands Expo Center in Las Vegas, Booth #736.

On Wednesday, June 26, Teresa Michael, RHIT, Director of Health Information Management, Sarasota Memorial Health Care System and Mark Hendricks, RHIA, Commercial General Manager and Vice President, Precyse will present, "Advancing Clinical Documentation Quality and Accuracy While Preparing for ICD-10." This presentation will outline how Sarasota Memorial Health Care System made a substantial impact on their bottom line by implementing a comprehensive clinical documentation improvement (CDI) program. Hendricks' and Michael's presentation will take place 7:00-7:50 a.m.

In Precyse booth #736, industry experts will be available to discuss the only HFMA Peer Reviewed HIM Technology and Services Suite. The Precyse portfolio includes precyseCode and precyseCDI, the only single, integrated platform enabling both inpatient and outpatient computer assisted coding and clinical documentation improvement (CDI). The Cloud-based platform incorporates state-of-art Natural Language Processing (NLP) for embedded intelligence and supports multiple HIM roles within an organization. In a KLAS report titled "Computer-Assisted Coding: A Glimpse at the Future of HIM Technology," Precyse was "praised for [its] strong technology and...received the highest scores of providers" perception that their solution will meet their needs."<sup>i</sup>

KLAS has also recognized Precyse University, the most innovative and complete on-site, online and mobile healthcare education solution that is revolutionizing the way that 1.6 million healthcare professionals learn, in the recent KLAS report, "ICD-10 Consulting Services: Who Can Help in the Eleventh Hour."<sup>ii</sup>

"Precyse continues to drive performance management by delivering products and services that optimize financial opportunity by positively impacting clinical documentation and quality," said Chris Powell, CEO, Precyse. "Appropriate clinical documentation leads to appropriate reimbursement for care. Our combination of technology and services helps organizations drive internal performance and maximize value."

The Precyse HFMA Peer Reviewed HIM Technology and Services Suite includes HIM sourcing, interim management and consulting, coding, CDI, auditing, cancer registry, Best in KLAS Transcription, plus ICD-10 education.<sup>iii</sup>

Also at the show, Precyse and Jvion will jointly be hosting a provider-only networking event and Casino night. The reception will take place June 23, 5:30-7:30 p.m.in the Venetian Conference
